Presents

"The Eagle"

Dedication

We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-two, are proud to dedicate our annual, the Eagle, to one of our most deserving teachers, Mr. James Smith.

As our home room advisor, he has helped us in developing our personalities and he has helped us to reach for higher ideals.

In teaching he has devoted many hours of his time to the students and he has made us understand the responsibilities of adulthood.

His pleasing personality has made the students look to him for sponsoring many activities which he has done willingly.

We proudly dedicate our annual to Mr. James Smith, a dedicated teacher.

Foreword

It is the purpose of the 1962 EAGLE to portray the school life of the faculty and students, and to illustrate the various phases of work and relaxation throughout the year. The deeds of those who participated actively are recorded in this annual as recognition for helping to build a better school and community.

We, the staff, hope that as you look at this book in the years to come, it will contain many pleasant memoirs of your high school days and activities, even though the students and the school will change in appearance and personality.

Above all, we hope that it will bring back fond memories of "dear" old Avella High and the friendships you have won and cherished here.

Our Overseers

The production of this annual has taken many hours of laborious work by many people. The time spent has been filled with tears and happiness, disappointment and success, all of which comprise any intellectual endeavor.

It has taken the co-operation of the two very capable co-editors, the editorial staff, and the combined efforts of many seniors who offered their assistance. Also, the extra time and advice given by the photographer helped immensely.

To these people, we, the sponsors, offer a hearty congratulations on a job well done.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Corl Mr. Catalano Co-Sponsors

Mr. Earl C. Lunger, Supervising Principal

Dear Class of 1962:

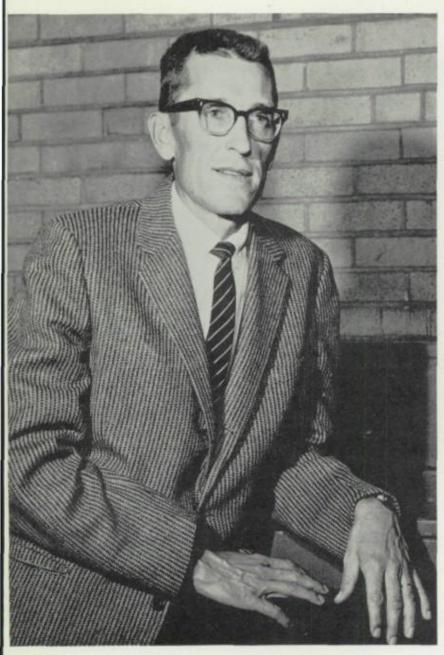

Congratulations on your completion of another step in your training. We live in an age of rapid advancement—the Age of Space. What comes next we can only dare to imagine. Yet, greater and better things must come. You are just starting down that long road which lies ahead ready to meet the new as well as the old. You will be among the leaders of tomorrow trying to realize your hopes and aspirations. What you do with the possessions you will have at your disposal remains to be seen. The hopes and dreams of the world ride with you. How you meet the challenge and the efforts you put forth to solve them will determine the amount of happiness you may expect to enjoy. My sincere wish is that you will do those things that will bring lasting happiness to a world torn with fear, strife and selfishness. God bless you all.

Very sincerely yours,

Coarl Lunger

Class Poem

Here we are, the youth of today;
The future is in our hands.
Though life is ours, we must not stray
From the high ideals of This great land.

Tossed and turned by storms of life.

We'll want to let these ideals fall.

In school we've learned to face such strife,

Thanks to our teachers—one and all.

So on we go; we can not fail.

Too many have put in us
their trust.

We're ready now to beat our trail.

We have no choice;

We've been in school for many years; As we go we heave a sigh. With hopeful hearts, eyes filled with tears, We leave thee, old Avella High.

do this we must.

Avella High School Football Jeam

Once again the Avella Eagles had a superb season. Under the excellent coaching of Fioroni, Neidermeyer, and Campanelli, the Eagles flew through the entire season with an unblemished 9-0-0 record. The Eagles marched against such formidable opponents as Crafton, Mapletown, Bentleyville-Ellsworth, South Fayette, and Jefferson Morgan. After defeating these teams, the mighty Eagles flew to Dormont Memorial Stadium and defeated Washington Township's 1960 W.P.I.A.L. defending Class B champs. This marked the first time that Avella did not share the crown. Back in 1957 Avella shared the championship laurels with Montour.

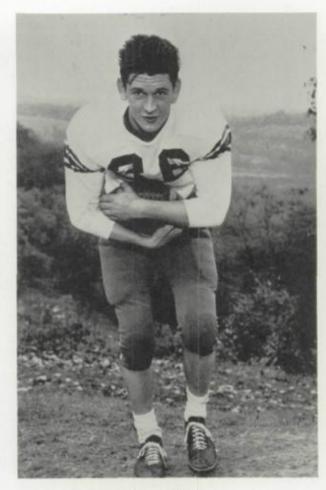

During the season many new stars were born, but the excellent season was made possible by the entire squad's efforts.

Once again the little team was proud of their football who brought home the championship.

The Avella girls' team has made an impressive record this year, losing only one of its regular games. The forwards have succeeded in making quite a few points while the guards have endeavored to hold the opposing team to a low score.

Thanks to the skill and hard work of all the players, the team can look back upon a very enjoyable and successful season.
